About 20 NSS volunteers and the NSS programme officer participated in the programme. It provided valuable insights into the importance of cultural preservation and the role of community service in building a better society. The conference not only strengthened the connection of the volunteers with their cultural roots but also motivated them to take a more active role in serving their communities.

Participation in the Book Fair on 10.10.2024

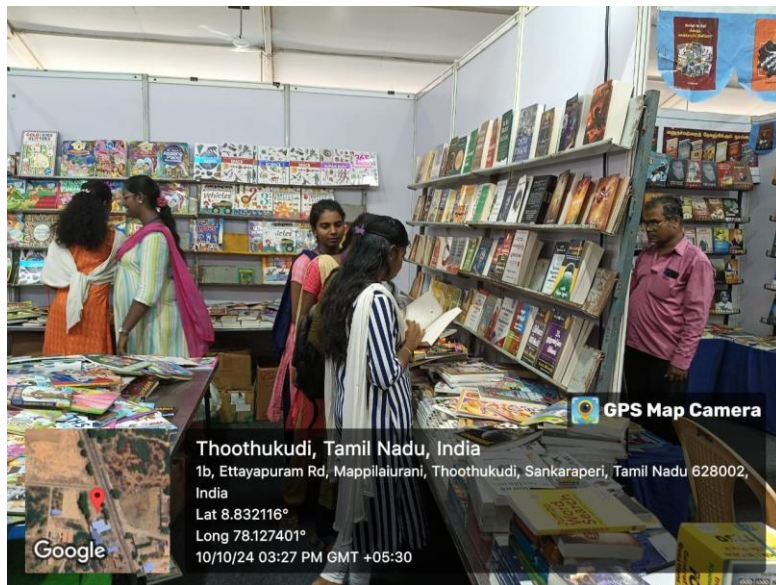

The book fair has been organised by Thoothukudi District Administration as Neithal Kalai Vizha. The fair is organized in association with various publishers. Book fairs have a great role to play in promoting the reading habit among people of all age groups. The fifth book fair in Thoothukudi had plenty of books on history and the younger generation would benefit through them and understand the significant contribution made by stalwarts in many spheres.

The fair provides a unique platform for business to business transactions, establishing new contacts, entering into co-publishing arrangements, translation and copy right arrangements, reprinting of old and rare books, apart from providing retailing opportunities as a multitude of visitors to the fair.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of St. Mary's College (Autonomous) arranged the students to visit the book fair on 10th October 2024. The students have participated in various competitions held in the book fair. Few students served as volunteers to regulate the book fair held from 3rd October to 13th October 2024. Hence, people must make it a habit to read different types of books that would be useful to them. On many occasions, reading books helped the students to connect with the people and get in touch or understand their problems. The younger generation had the opportunity to learn and understand the nuances of the culture and tradition of the State and the district.

The organisers said the book fair on Sankaraperi ground had 100 stalls set up by leading publications and books of well-known authors were on display. The government had also put up 13 stalls to create awareness on use of plastics, among other issues. Apart from special events such as patti mandram, the organisers had several events to demonstrate the art and traditions of the people. A food court with participation from key players across southern districts were present.

This event was part of the NSS's initiative to promote awareness and encourage active participation in the electoral process, especially among young voters. The competition aimed to inspire students and community members to understand the significance of voting and exercise their right to vote responsibly. A total of 102 participants registered for essay writing and poster making competition. The posters created by the students will be displayed in the college foyer, drawing attention to the significance of voting among the younger generation. The three panel of judges, evaluated the entries based on creativity, relevance to the theme, and the effectiveness of the message conveyed.

Constitution Day Celebration

26.11.2024

On the occasion of Constitution Day, celebrated on 26th November 2024, a special programme was organized to honour the adoption of the Constitution of India and to reaffirm our commitment to its guiding principles. The programme commenced with a brief address by the principal, who emphasized the historical significance of the day and the vital role of the Constitution in shaping the democratic framework of the nation. The students and staff were reminded of the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity that form the foundation of our Republic. The highlight of the event was the collective reading of the Preamble to the Constitution of India. All participants read the Preamble aloud, echoing the spirit of national pride and constitutional awareness.

Online quiz competition on “Human Rights: Promoting Awareness and Understanding”

10.12.2024

Report

The goal of the Event Quiz competitions is always interesting and informative, which keeps the students interested. Human Rights Day is celebrated annually around the world on 10th December every year. The date was chosen to honor the United Nations General Assembly’s adoption and proclamation, on 10th December 1948, of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the first global enunciation of human rights and one of the first major achievements of the new United Nations. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness of basic human rights and to educate them about the safeguards for their protection. Human rights are moral entitlements that every individual in the world possesses simply in virtue of the fact that he or she is a human being. In claiming our human rights, we are making a moral claim, normally on our own government, that you cannot do that, because it is a violation of my moral sphere and my personal dignity. No-one – no individual, no government – can ever take away our human rights. Fundamentally, because everyone is a human being and therefore a moral being. The majority of individuals, if shown that they are violating someone else's personal dignity, will try to refrain. In general, people do not want to hurt other people. However, in addition to the moral sanctions of one's own conscience or that of others, there is now legislation in most countries of the world which obliges governments to respect the basic human rights of citizens, even when they may be unwilling to do so. The online quiz competition on ‘Human Rights: Promoting Awareness and Understanding’ in commemoration of 76th Anniversary of the International Human Rights Day was organized by National Service Scheme (Unit No. 66, 67, 129 and 130) and YRC. Around 50 students were participated in this quiz competition. This competition highlighted the importance of Human Rights and the need to uphold them in our daily lives. The questions were framed on various human rights issues, such as gender equality, freedom of speech, and the right to education.

Leprosy Eradication Awareness Rally on 30th January 2025

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of St. Mary's College (Autonomous), Thoothukudi in collaboration with Youth Red Cross Club, St. Mary's College (Autonomous) Thoothukudi and Directorate of Public Health and Preventive Medicine (DPH) organised a Leprosy Awareness Rally in commemoration of the World Leprosy Day on 30th January 2025. The Flag of ceremony was initiated by District Revenue Officer Thiru. A. Ravichandran. The aim of the rally was to educate the public about leprosy, dispelling myths, and promoting early diagnosis and treatment. A total of 197 NSS volunteers participated in the event. The students from various departments gathered at 11 am in the morning at college portico. District Revenue Officer Thiru. A. Ravichandran addressed the students before the rally, emphasizing the importance of awareness and timely treatment in eradicating the disease. He also highlighted the government schemes available for leprosy patients and the need to treat them with compassion and dignity.

The rally commenced from St. Mary's College (Autonomous), Thoothukudi and concluded at The Indira Gandhi Statue, North Beach Road, Thoothukudi, covering a distance of approximately 4 kilometers. Students carried placards and banners bearing slogans such as “Leprosy is Curable,” “Stop the Stigma,” and “Early Treatment Saves Lives.” Pamphlets containing information about the symptoms, causes, and treatment of leprosy were distributed to the public throughout the route.

On the whole the awareness rally proved to be a successful initiative, spreading much-needed knowledge about leprosy and reinforcing the collective responsibility of society in eliminating both the disease and the stigma associated with it.

National Service Scheme (Unit No. 66, 67, 129 and 130) of St.Mary's College (Autonomous), Neyveli Lignite Corporation (NLC) and Aravind Eye Hospital, Thoothukudi organized a Mega Free Eye Check-up camp on 23rd March 2025 at Government Higher Secondary School, M.Thangammalpuram, Thoothukudi as part of a joint initiative to promote community health and eye care awareness. The event was graced by the presence of Hon'ble Minister for Social Welfare and Women Empowerment, Smt. Geetha Jeevan, who attended the camp as the Chief Guest. She appreciated the efforts for bringing essential eye care services to the local community, especially to the underprivileged. She highlighted the importance of early detection and regular eye check-ups in preventing avoidable blindness. The camp witnessed an overwhelming response from the public, with more than 500 beneficiaries availing free eye screening, consultation, and treatment. A dedicated team of ophthalmologists and staff from Aravind Eye Hospital conducted comprehensive eye examinations, distributed medicines and free eye glasses, and identified cases requiring further treatment or surgeries, which were arranged at no cost to the patients. The event was coordinated efficiently with the support of NSS volunteers of St.Mary's College (Autonomous), Thoothukudi. The Mega Eye Camp was a significant step toward community welfare, providing vital healthcare services to hundreds of individuals. The presence and encouragement of Minister Geetha Jeevan added great value and inspiration to the event. The programme served as a shining example of successful public-private partnership in healthcare outreach.
