2020 - 2021

HoD's Message

It's inspiring to reflect on the progress and passion that have defined our journey in French as a second language. From exploring the nuances of the language to celebrating the rich heritage of Francophone cultures, this year has been filled with remarkable milestones.

The events, workshops, and classroom discussions have not only deepened our understanding but also fostered a true appreciation for the global significance of French. These collective efforts are a testament to the vibrant spirit of our department.

Wishing everyone a continued success and growth.

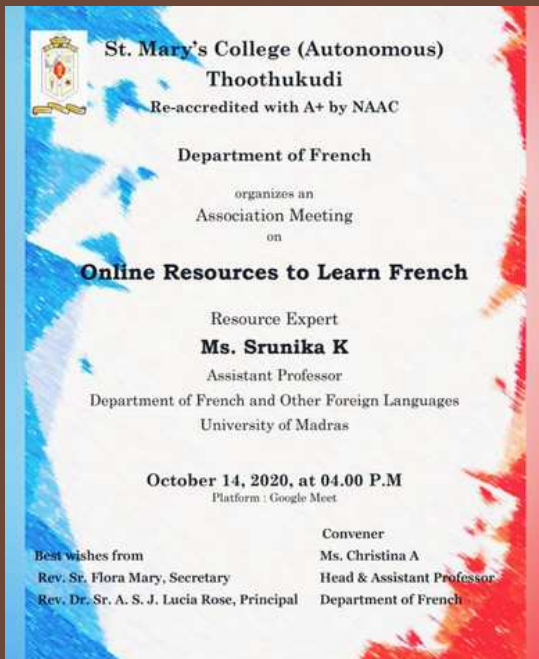

Amicalement,
Christina A
Head of the French Department
